

Level 2: Diagram of Certification

The OCR Level 2 Nationals contain two types of qualifications (not ICT*), one building on the previous.

- To achieve the Award you have to achieve two mandatory units and complete one optional unit.
- To achieve the Certificate you have to complete 6 units consisting of the four mandatory units and two optional units.

*The OCR ICT Level 2 Nationals contain four types of qualifications, each one building on the previous:

For the full OCR Level 2 National First Award in ICT, candidates must achieve unit 1 plus one optional 30 glh unit.

For the full OCR Level 2 National Award in ICT, candidates must achieve unit 1 plus two optional 60 glh units

or

unit 1 plus one optional 60 glh unit plus two optional 30 glh units.

For the full OCR Level 2 National First Certificate in ICT, candidates must achieve unit 1 plus three optional 60 glh units plus one optional 30 glh unit

or

unit 1 plus two optional 60 glh units plus three optional 30 glh units.

For the full OCR Level 2 National Certificate in ICT, candidates must achieve unit 1 plus five optional 60 glh units

or

unit 1 plus four optional 60 glh units plus two optional 30 glh units

or

unit 1 plus three optional plus four optional 30 glh units.

Level 3: Diagram of Certification

The OCR Level 3 Nationals contain three types of qualifications, each one building on the previous.

- To achieve the Certificate you have to achieve four mandatory units (units 1, 2, 3, and 4) and complete two optional units.
- To achieve the Diploma you have to achieve four mandatory units (units 1, 2, 3, and 4) and complete eight optional units.
- To achieve the Extended Diploma you have to complete 18 units consisting of the four mandatory units and 12 optional units.

