Raising a Concern/Complaint

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, The King David High School encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. [- A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre].

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

If a parent has any complaint / concern regarding their child [or indeed any other complaint] at school, they are invited to call the school office to make an appointment for an informal meeting with the Head or Deputy Head. Such a meeting will be arranged within 14 school days.

If the parent is not satisfied and wishes to escalate the complaint, they should write a formal letter to the Head Teacher setting out the grounds for their complaint. The Head Teacher will respond within 14 school days.

If the parent or the school feel that a further meeting would be useful, they may request it (in writing) and such a meeting will be held within 14 school days from the date of the request. The school's response will follow within 10 school days.

This complaints procedure covers complaints relating to pupils or indeed any other complaint.

How a formal complaint is investigated

If the parent wishes to escalate the complaint further, they should write to the Chair of Governors (via the school office) setting out the grounds for their complaint and the Chair will arrange to meet the parents within 10 school days. Following that meeting, the Chair will respond within 10 school days.

If the issue is not resolved or if the parent prefers and notifies the Chair in writing, the Governors will arrange for a panel to hear the complaint. The panel will consist of at least three people who were not directly involved in the matters detailed in the complaint, including one panel member who is independent of the management and running of the school. Parents may attend the panel hearing and may be accompanied (if they so wish) by a friend or advisor.

The decision by the panel will be communicated to the parent(s) within 14 school days.

A copy of the panel's findings and recommendations will be provided to the complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about. A copy will also be available for inspection at the school office.

Records of all complaints and outcomes will be kept by the school. Such records will be kept confidential [unless instructed otherwise by the Secretary of State or by a body inspecting under Section 109 of the 2008 Act]

If the complainant has exhausted the school's complaints procedure and is still not happy, they can submit a complaint to the ESFA

Timelines

Parents of King David pupils may lodge a complaint (concerning a KD pupil) within 3 months of the incident concerned. Complaints raised outside this timeframe will only be considered in exceptional circumstances.

Except in exceptional circumstances, parents of former KD pupils should lodge their complaint (latest) within 12 months of the pupil's leaving date.

Internal Appeals Procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

If the issue is not resolved or if the parent prefers and notifies the Chair in writing, the Governors will arrange for a panel to hear the complaint. The panel will consist of at least three people who were not directly involved in the matters detailed in the complaint, including one panel member who is independent of the management and running of the school. Parents may attend the panel hearing and may be accompanied (if they so wish) by a friend or advisor.

- The decision by the panel will be communicated to the parent(s) within 14 school days.

A copy of the panel's findings and recommendations will be provided to the complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about. A copy will also be available for inspection at the school office.
